

dewing grain podcast

The independent grain trader for farmers

What is a podcast?

It's like a radio programme,
you can listen whenever you like!

How do I listen?

There are a few options

You can go straight to www.dewinggrain.co.uk/podcast However, most people listen on their mobile phone or smart speaker (Amazon Alexa or Google Assistant).

Listening on your mobile

A lot of people listen this way as it's portable and you can listen on the go.

Using an iphone?

You already have a podcast app on your phone. It looks like this, and is simply called 'Podcasts'.

Using an Android?

If so, we'd recommend you get started with an app like Stitcher. It's free to install and use and looks like this.

I've got the app on my mobile. Now what?

It's time to load it up with podcasts.

Open the app and search for us by name: Dewing Grain Podcast.

Once you've located us, click on our icon and look for the SUBSCRIBE button. Click and you're done!

New episodes will automatically download onto your phone when they're released. To listen, navigate to the 'listen now' tab, and press play!

Make sure you subscribe to the Dewing Grain podcast and please remember to rate and review the show as it really helps new listeners find us.

Still not completely clear? Pop into our offices, give us a call or send an email to podcast@dewinggrain.co.uk and we'll do our best to help.
